Rep. Josh Schriver, from the 66th District, offered the following invocation:

“Psalm 118

- 1 Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good;
His love endures forever.
- 2 Let Israel say:
“His love endures forever.”
- 3 Let the house of Aaron say:
“His love endures forever.”
- 4 Let those who fear the LORD say:
“His love endures forever.”
- 5 When hard pressed, I cried to the LORD;
He brought me into a spacious place.
- 6 The LORD is with me; I will not be afraid.
What can mere mortals do to me?
- 7 The LORD is with me; He is my helper.
I look in triumph on my enemies.
- 8 It is better to take refuge in the LORD
than to trust in humans.
- 9 It is better to take refuge in the LORD
than to trust in princes.
- 10 All the nations surrounded me,
but in the name of the LORD I cut them down.
- 11 They surrounded me on every side,
but in the name of the LORD I cut them down.
- 12 They swarmed around me like bees,
but they were consumed as quickly as burning thorns;
in the name of the LORD I cut them down.
- 13 I was pushed back and about to fall,
but the LORD helped me.
- 14 The LORD is my strength and my defense;
He has become my salvation.
- 15 Shouts of joy and victory
resound in the tents of the righteous:
‘The LORD’s right hand has done mighty things!’
- 16 The LORD’s right hand is lifted high;
the LORD’s right hand has done mighty things!’
- 17 I will not die but live,
and will proclaim what the LORD has done.
- 18 The LORD has chastened me severely,
but He has not given me over to death.
- 19 Open for me the gates of the righteous;
I will enter and give thanks to the LORD.
- 20 This is the gate of the LORD
through which the righteous may enter.
- 21 I will give you thanks, for you answered me;
you have become my salvation.
- 22 The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone;
- 23 the LORD has done this,
and it is marvelous in our eyes.
- 24 The LORD has done it this very day;
let us rejoice today and be glad.
- 25 LORD, save us!
LORD, grant us success!
- 26 Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD.
From the house of the LORD we bless you.
- 27 The LORD is God,
and He has made His light shine on us.
With boughs in hand, join in the festal procession up to the horns of the altar.

28 You are my God, and I will praise You;
you are my God, and I will exalt You.
29 Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good;
His love endures forever.”

The Speaker called Associate Speaker Pro Tempore Glanville to the Chair.

Motions and Resolutions

Reps. VanWoerkom, Aiyash, Alexander, Bezotte, Bollin, Brabec, Breen, Churches, Fitzgerald, Fox, Glanville, Haadsma, Hill, Hope, Koleszar, Lightner, Morse, Paiz, Rheingans, Rogers, Schuette, Shannon, Weiss, Wilson and Young offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 159.

A resolution to declare November 2023 as Diabetes Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, Approximately 965,000 adults and children in Michigan are affected by Type 1 or Type 2 diabetes and approximately 37.3 million Americans are affected nationwide; and

Whereas, Approximately 63,200 new people are diagnosed with diabetes each year in Michigan; and

Whereas, Type 1 diabetes typically presents during childhood or adolescence, but can also develop in adults; and

Whereas, The warning signs of Type 1 diabetes include excessive thirst, frequent urination, rapid weight loss, stomach pain, nausea, vomiting, fatigue, and weakness, and are often mistaken for the flu, strep throat, a growth spurt, or a urinary tract infection; and

Whereas, In 2019, approximately 283,000 children and adolescents younger than 20 years old had diagnosed diabetes in the United States; and

Whereas, The warning signs of Type 2 diabetes include increased thirst, frequent urination, increased appetite, weight loss, fatigue, and dark patches of skin; and

Whereas, As childhood obesity increases, there is an ongoing shift of Type 2 Diabetes from an adult disease to one that affects children; and

Whereas, The 2022 direct medical cost of diabetes in Michigan was estimated at $7 billion; and

Whereas, There is not a cure for Types 1 or 2 diabetes, but the diseases may be manageable through diet, exercise, insulin therapy or other medications; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare November 2023 as Diabetes Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Fitzgerald, Haadsma, Hope, Brabec, Stone, Miller, Byrnes, Glanville, Bollin, Breen, Churches, Fox, Hill, Koleszar, McFall, Morse, Paiz, Price, Rheingans, Rogers, Thompson, Weiss, Wilson and Young offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 160.

A resolution to declare November 2023 as Children's Grief Awareness Month in the state of Michigan.

Whereas, One in twelve children experience the death of a parent or sibling before graduating high school; and

Whereas, Children old enough to love are old enough to mourn the loss of a loved one; and

Whereas, Grieving children often feel set apart, different from their peers, alone, and not understood; and

Whereas, Children often struggle to process grief or express the emotions stemming from loss in a healthy way; and

Whereas, Absence of support can have a serious impact on educational attainment and emotional growth, leading to future difficulties in life; and

Whereas, Our state is fortunate to have organizations with talented professionals and volunteers who focus on childhood grief, providing emotional support, coping mechanisms, and the foundation to process grief from the loss of a loved one; and

Whereas, This November, as the holiday season approaches and existing grief is often intensified, organizations like these, alongside Michigan parents and children, will come together to demonstrate the need for greater awareness of childhood grief, and encourage the rest of our state to prioritize supporting organizations and actors that commit themselves to this cause; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body declare November 2023 as Children's Grief Awareness Month.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Bruck, Aiyash, Alexander, Bezotte, Bollin, Brabec, Breen, Churches, Fitzgerald, Fox, Glanville, Jaime Greene, Haadsma, Hill, Hope, Koleszar, Lightner, Martin, McFall, Morse, Paiz, Price, Rheingans, Rogers, Schuette, Shannon, Weiss, Wilson and Young offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 161.

A resolution to honor Michigan's veterans.

Whereas, There are 16.2 million veterans in the United States and 568,000 veterans in Michigan who are deserving of our highest praise and greatest admiration; and

Whereas, Veterans, along with their families, sacrifice very much to ensure our freedom and liberty. The people of Michigan and the United States are eternally grateful; and

Whereas, The state of Michigan is mindful that each passing day leaves us with fewer of those who valiantly served our nation in our darkest days; and

Whereas, We honor those who have fallen in past and current conflicts in the service of freedom and remember their ultimate sacrifice each passing year. We wait for service members to arrive home from battlefields across the globe. We pledge to honor and respect veterans upon their return; and

Whereas, Some veterans returned home wounded in defense of our country, and many more returned home with scars that cannot be seen; and

Whereas, Gen. MacArthur said "The soldier above all others prays for peace, for it is the soldier who must suffer and bear the deepest wounds and scars of war;" and

Whereas, We can never truly repay all that veterans have sacrificed for this great country. It is only right that we honor them and their sacrifices by ensuring they have the necessary tools to succeed when they return home; and

Whereas, It is important to promote and support solutions to the unique challenges that veterans face. We commit to fight for worthy policies for veterans; and

Whereas, During the month that we celebrate Veterans Day, we recognize that, whether living veterans of World War II to current conflicts, veterans have served our country in the most important role of our government—as protectors of freedom, and have formed the foundation upon which we continue to build this nation; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, by the House of Representatives, That the members of this legislative body honor Michigan veterans. We express our enduring gratitude and utmost respect for their service to both our great state and our great nation.

The question being on the adoption of the resolution,

The resolution was adopted.

Reps. Hope, Rheingans, Andrews, Scott, Byrnes, Brixie, Dievendorf, McFall, Coffia, Wilson, Wegela, Farhat, Aiyash, Brabec, Breen, Paiz, Price, Weiss and Young offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 162.

A resolution to adopt a restaurant workers bill of rights.

Whereas, There are over four hundred thousand restaurant workers in Michigan and over eleven million in the United States, comprising approximately ten percent of the overall workforce on the state and national levels; and

Whereas, Over sixty percent of American adults report working in the restaurant industry at some point during their lives. Forty-eight percent report having had their first regular job in a restaurant; and

Whereas, The restaurant industry is very diverse. Fifty-four percent of workers in the industry are women, nearly half are workers of color, and over twenty percent are immigrants; and

Whereas, Restaurant workers are more than twice as likely to live in poverty than the general workforce, and access food stamps at twice the rate of the overall workforce; and

Whereas, Michigan's tipped minimum wage is just $3.84 per hour and many employers do not offer health insurance; and

Whereas, Restaurant employees experience wage theft and other violations of wage and hour laws at alarmingly high rates. Restaurant workers are robbed of their wages by not being paid overtime, having tips withheld, and being paid less than the minimum wage. A U.S. Department of Labor investigation of over nine thousand restaurants found that eighty-four percent of those restaurants violated wage and hours laws; and

Whereas, The restaurant industry is filled with racism and sexism. Restaurant workers experience racism not only from customers, but also restaurant owners and management who deny minorities employment and promotion. The rate of sexual harassment among female restaurant workers is the highest of any industry, with female workers filing sexual harassment charges at twice the rate of the general workforce. One survey of restaurant workers found that more than seventy percent of women reported having been sexually harassed in the workplace; and

Whereas, Low wages, unjust working conditions, and lack of access to meaningful health care coverage, including reproductive healthcare, can significantly affect restaurant workers' decisions about pregnancy and whether to become a parent, and disproportionately affects women and people of color; and

Whereas, The United States is currently the only member country of the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development without a national paid family leave program and one of only a few high-income countries without a national family caregiving or medical leave policy. Most restaurant workers have no guaranteed paid or unpaid leave. This leaves the vast majority of restaurant workers to face the impossible choice between caring for their newborn infant or retaining their employment; and

Whereas, In a survey of the impacts COVID-19 had on the restaurant industry, sixty-eight percent of respondents said that someone in their workplace had tested positive for COVID-19 as of 2021, and one in ten restaurant workers went to work with COVID-19 symptoms because of economic pressures including the risk of losing income, lack of adequate sick leave, and fear of retaliation by their employer; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we believe that restaurant workers deserve to have their government work in consultation, collaboration, and partnership with the restaurant industry, labor unions, civil society groups, academia, and businesses to ensure that all restaurant workers are entitled to the following rights:

1. The right to economic stability and to be paid a livable and fair wage.
2. The right to have access to safe and affordable housing.
3. The right to high-quality, affordable childcare.
4. The right to be economically secure in retirement.
5. The right to paid leave for illness, to care for family members, and to welcome new children into their families.
6. The right to predictive scheduling that allows restaurant workers the ability to engage in family and social obligations outside of work.
7. The right to a safe and dignified workplace, free from harassment and discrimination of any type.
8. The right to comprehensive and affordable healthcare, including a full range of reproductive and gender-affirming care.
9. The right to participate in governance by exercising their rights as citizens, workers, voters, activists, and organizers at all levels of government and at the workplace, free from pressure or coercion from employers; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Governor and the Director of the Department of Labor and Economic Opportunity.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Government Operations.

Reps. Coffia, Arbit, Conlin, McKinney, Hope, Rheingans, Brabec, Stone, Coleman, Brixie, Hood, Hill, Aiyash, Breen, Churches, Haadsma, Morse, Paiz, Price, Rogers, Wilson and Young offered the following resolution:

House Resolution No. 163.

A resolution to urge the United States Congress to pass Senate Bill 2777, the Child Care Stabilization Act. Whereas, The American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) was passed in 2021 and included nearly 24 billion dollars to stabilize child care centers during the COVID-19 pandemic, nearly 15 billion dollars in child care and development block grants, and over 3.5 billion dollars in grants for child care assistance. Michigan received 1.4 billion dollars in federal child care funding through ARPA and the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act. However, on September thirtieth, much of the critical child care funding provided through ARPA ceased. The scarcity of available federal resources is predicted to have devastating effects on families and the child care system as a whole. This lack of funding must be remedied by the passage of the Child Care Stabilization Act, which aims to provide grants that would help make child care services more accessible to families and support the stability and quality of child care providers; and

Whereas, Without federal support, child care programs may be forced to close in Michigan and across the United States. Access to child care is already a prominent issue in Michigan with 44 percent of residents living in a child care desert, meaning there are at least three times as many children as licensed child care providers. A 2020 study found there were only child care openings for about 31 percent of the 560,000 Michigan children under six years old that needed child care. With the end of ARPA funding, more than 1,200 child care programs are projected to close in Michigan, leaving more than 56,000 children at risk of losing their child care. Nationally, 3.2 million children are at risk of losing care; and

Whereas, The loss of federal funds will likely hurt state economies by causing a loss in economic activity, tax revenues, employer productivity, employment, and earnings. Millions of parents are projected to be impacted by the loss of child care by being forced to leave the workforce or reduce their work hours. This could cost families in the United States 9 billion dollars each year in lost earnings. In 2019, just over 9.4 percent of parents in the U.S., including 14 percent of Michigan parents, reported that child care issues caused significant disruptions to their employment. A Michigan study from 2023 reported a much higher rate of nearly 32 percent. Fourteen percent of Michigan parents from that study reportedly left a job in the last six months in order to provide their own child care; and

Whereas, Federal funding is critical not only for American families but also for child care providers. ARPA funds were used to pay child care workers higher wages to attract additional staff members and prevent staff turnover. The increase to wages was vital for many child care workers, whose average annual wage is around 28,000 dollars. Over 60 percent of child care workers struggle to pay for food and utilities each month. Once the federal funds ran out, some child care workers had to work additional jobs or leave child care entirely to support their families; and

Whereas, Some child care providers used ARPA funds to provide tuition assistance to families. States, tribes, and territories also used the money to help low-income families and essential workers cover child care costs. On average, American families spend between 5,000 dollars and 17,000 dollars, roughly between 8 and 19 percent of their income, on child care every year. As the cost of child care continues to rise, the federal government must step in and provide resources to support the child care system and the millions of children that it serves; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That we urge the United States Congress to pass Senate Bill 2777, the Child Care Stabilization Act; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, the President of the United States Senate, and the members of Michigan's congressional delegation.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Government Operations.

The Speaker Pro Tempore assumed the Chair.

The House agreed to the title of the bill.
Rep. Wilson moved that the bill be given immediate effect.
The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Steele, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

HB 4945 treat non-violent offenses even more harshly than some violent felonies, undermining the principles of fairness and proportional punishment in our criminal justice system. These bills extend far beyond the federal standards, which rightly focus on domestic violence misdemeanors involving physical force or the threatened use of deadly weapons. Michigan should align its laws with the federal standard to ensure consistency and avoid excessively punitive measures for nonviolent crimes; which is why I cosponsored House Bills 5152 and 5153. In addition, I offered SBN471 Amendment No. 1 to substitute these bills with the ones I cosponsored. These bills are extreme and undermine our constitutional rights.

This bill is tie barred to 4946 and introduced along with SB 471 and SB528.”

Rep. Schmaltz, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

HB 4945, SB 471 and SB 528 treat non-violent offenses far too harshly, undermining the principles of fairness and proportional punishment in our criminal justice system. For example, a woman in a tumultuous relationship who keys her boyfriend’s car would lose access to firearms for eight years under these bills. Obviously, that’s wrong, but these bills take a misdemeanor crime assign it a penalty normally reserved for felonies. These bills would take away a woman’s ability to protect herself in this situation.

These bills also extend far beyond the federal standards, which rightly focus on domestic violence misdemeanors involving physical force or the threatened use of deadly weapons. Michigan should align its laws with the federal standard to ensure consistency and avoid excessively punitive measures for nonviolent crimes, which is why I cosponsored House Bills 5152 and 5153. I cannot support HB 4945, SB 471 and SB 528 in their current form.”

Rep. Hall, having reserved the right to explain his protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

Federal law already prohibits people convicted of domestic violence from possessing firearms. Senate Bills 471, 528 and House Bill 4945 extend beyond the federal standards, which is why I cosponsored House Bills 5152 and 5153. Michigan should codify the federal law to ensure consistency, which is why I cannot support SBs 471, 528 and HB 4945 as they currently stand.”

Senate Bill No. 471, entitled

Pursuant to Joint Rule 20, the full title of the act shall be inserted to read as follows:

“An act to revise, consolidate, codify, and add to the statutes relating to crimes; to define crimes and prescribe the penalties and remedies; to provide for restitution under certain circumstances; to provide for the competency of evidence at the trial of persons accused of crime; to provide immunity from prosecution for certain witnesses appearing at criminal trials; to provide for liability for damages; and to repeal certain acts and parts of acts inconsistent with or contravening any of the provisions of this act,”

The House agreed to the full title.

Rep. Wilson moved that the bill be given immediate effect.

The motion prevailed, 2/3 of the members serving voting therefor.

Rep. Steele, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

SB471 treat non-violent offenses even more harshly than some violent felonies, undermining the principles of fairness and proportional punishment in our criminal justice system. These bills extend far beyond the federal standards, which rightly focus on domestic violence misdemeanors involving physical force or the threatened use of deadly weapons. Michigan should align its laws with the federal standard to ensure to ensure consistency and avoid excessively punitive measures for nonviolent crimes, which is why I cosponsored House Bills 5152 and 5153. In addition, I offered SB 471 Amendment No. 1 to substitute these bills with the ones I cosponsored. These bills are extreme and undermine our constitutional rights.

This bill is tie barred to SB 528 and introduced along with HB4945-HB 4946.”

Rep. Edwards, having reserved the right to explain her protest against the passage of the bill, made the following statement:

“Mr. Speaker and members of the House:

Medication aides are typically paid less than registered nurses (RNs) and licensed practical nurses (LPNs). However, some healthcare settings may find that the cost of hiring and training medication aides is not justified by the savings in labor costs. Healthcare settings are legally responsible for the actions of their employees. Some healthcare settings may be concerned about the potential liability of medication aides making medication errors. In addition, Medication aides should receive comprehensive training on all aspects of medication administration, including medication safety, pharmacology, and patient assessment. My no vote was in support of current and future RN’s, LPN’s and other medical professionals.”
